Broad goals your users should be able to use your website for.

Memo: Revisiting User Stories

Memo: Revisiting User Stories

As a person who faced a hate crime

P4
Persona4

I want to report my incident without fear
from authorities

So that people can hear my story and take action to prevent more from occurring

Memo: Revisiting User Stories

The screenshot shows a news article on the UCLA Newsroom website. The header includes the UCLA logo and the word "Newsroom". Navigation links for "Categories", "For news media", and a search icon are present. A yellow tag reads "NATION, WORLD + SOCIETY". The main headline is "Interactive map will crowdsource hate crime reports", with a sub-headline stating: "Resource created by UCLA American Indian Studies Center could fill gap created by inconsistent data nationwide". Below the text is a dark blue navigation bar with a home icon, the title "Mapping Hate Crimes in the US", and links for "SEE COVID HATE CRIMES", "REPORT INCIDENT", and "ABOUT". The main content area features a map of the United States with a legend titled "Hate Crimes in the US" and a color key for "Number of Hate Crimes". A zoom control with "+" and "-" buttons is visible on the left side of the map.
